Budget Advisory Commission:

The Budget Advisory Commission acts as an advisory body to the City Council in matters pertaining to short and long range financial planning and funding of City activities.

Responsibilities include, but are not limited to: Review the annual budget proposed by the City Manager, hold public meetings concerning the proposed annual budget and make recommendations accordingly; Review the City’s general fund, capital improvement program, and special funds budgets, including review of policies and procedures, time frames, format, and specific allocation proposals; Review proposals and make recommendations regarding new and increased revenue sources and service delivery alternatives; Explore alternatives approaches for financing future capital improvement projects.

Community Center Authority:

The Community Center Authority is a Joint Powers Authority created under the provisions of State law by an agreement between the City of Anaheim and the Anaheim Union High School District.

This Authority provides services to the City Council and functions as a financing conduit in connection with the construction, expansion, maintenance and operation of the Anaheim Convention Center.

Community Services Board:

The Community Services Board acts as an advisory body to the City Council in matters pertaining to the social service needs of the citizens of the City.

Responsibilities include, but are not limited to: Hold public meetings/public hearings to receive input regarding social services from citizens and from other governmental and private nonprofit organizations providing social services within the City; Recommend methods to coordinate social service programs provided by the City, other governmental agencies, and private nonprofit organizations; Recommend methods to match social service needs with the available resources; Recommend methods to avoid duplication of social services provided.

Cultural and Heritage Commission:

The Cultural and Heritage Commission acts as an advisory body to the City Council on matters concerning the arts, culture and historic preservation and heritage.

Responsibilities include, but are not limited to: Providing recommendations to City Council related to the implementation of the Cultural Arts Plan; Oversee the City's cultural and historical assets; Facilitate cooperative efforts to promote and enhance the cultural and historic environment of the city through events and programs; Develop recommendations concerning the allocation of City resources and selection of works of art and their placement, when appropriate; Encourage support by private individuals and organizations of the arts and of cultural and historic facilities and programs; Advocate and enlist community interest and participation in the arts and in cultural and historic programs.

Housing & Community Development Commission:

The Housing & Community Development Commission acts as an advisory body to the City Council relating to matters of community development. This Commission was established in accordance with the applicable provisions of the Housing Authorities Law (commencing with Section 34200 of the Health and Safety Code) of the State of California and subject to the applicable restrictions contained therein. One member shall represent each Neighborhood Council (West, East, Central, South) and three at-large.

Responsibilities include, but are not limited to: Conduct and carry out such functions as are prescribed by the Housing Authorities Law and functions and duties as prescribed in the Citizen Participation Plan adopted by the City Council pursuant to regulations promulgated by the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development.

Investment Advisory Commission:

The Investment Advisory Commission acts as an advisory body to the City Council relating to matters pertaining to the investment of City funds and the funds of other agencies governed by the City Council and which funds are invested by the City Treasurer (including but not limited to funds of the Anaheim Redevelopment Agency, Anaheim Housing Authority, and Anaheim Public Financing Authority). Emphasis of the Commission shall be on overall investment activities incorporating cash flow, permitted investments and risk/return factors. The Commission shall function in a general oversight capacity and shall not make investment decisions on individual securities.

Responsibilities include, but are not limited to: Review the annual investment policy proposed by the City Treasurer and the monthly City Treasurer's report; Review other investment reports prepared for submission to the Council and make recommendations; Review and make recommendations on the City Treasurer's investment strategies and portfolio asset and maturity structure.

Park & Recreation Commission:

The Park & Recreation Commission acts as an advisory body to the City Council relating to matters pertaining to parks and recreation, and to cooperate with other governmental agencies and civic groups in the advancement of sound park and recreation planning and programming.

Responsibilities include, but are not limited to: Recommend policies on recreation service; Recommend the adoption of standards on areas, facilities, programs and financial support; Inventory recreation services and make recommendations concerning such services to Council and the Director; Aid in coordinating the recreation service with the programs of other governmental agencies and voluntary organizations; Review the effectiveness of the park and recreation programs with the Director and City Manager; Review the annual budget advise the Director on the development of the Recreation Element of the General Plan, strategic planning efforts and any other long-range planning efforts designed to address the service needs of the public.

Planning Commission:

The Planning Commission recommends to the City Council, following a public hearing thereon, the adoption, amendment or repeal of a General Plan, or any part thereof, for guidance in the physical development of the City.

Responsibilities include, but are not limited to: Exercise functions with respect to land subdivisions as shall be provided by ordinance; Exercise such functions with respect to zoning, building, land use and related matters as may be prescribed by ordinance.

Senior Citizen Commission:

The Senior Citizen Commission acts as an advisory body to the City Council relating to the needs of the senior citizens within the community.

Responsibilities include, but are not limited to: Recommend possible City or community projects that would benefit Anaheim senior citizens; Hold at least one public meeting each calendar month to act on matters referred to it by Council and to receive input of senior citizen needs and senior citizen projects from citizens, from other governmental agencies and from private nonprofit organizations on matters affecting the senior citizen.